In 2013 the AIIA (WA) is offering two $2000 Bursaries for Australian students to undertake educational activities in Asia.

Are you

• A current student at one of the 5 Western Australian Universities?
• An Australian citizen or permanent resident?
• An AIIA Young Professionals Network member?

Why not apply for the AIIA (WA) Bursary?

The AIIA (WA) Bursary can be used to support a wide range of educational activities in Asia.

These include language courses, workshops, unpaid internships, forums, field research... and more.

You don’t have to be a Politics/International Relations student: undergraduates and postgraduates of all disciplines may be eligible.

More information, frequently asked questions and application materials can be found at:
